

...of our developments and achievements

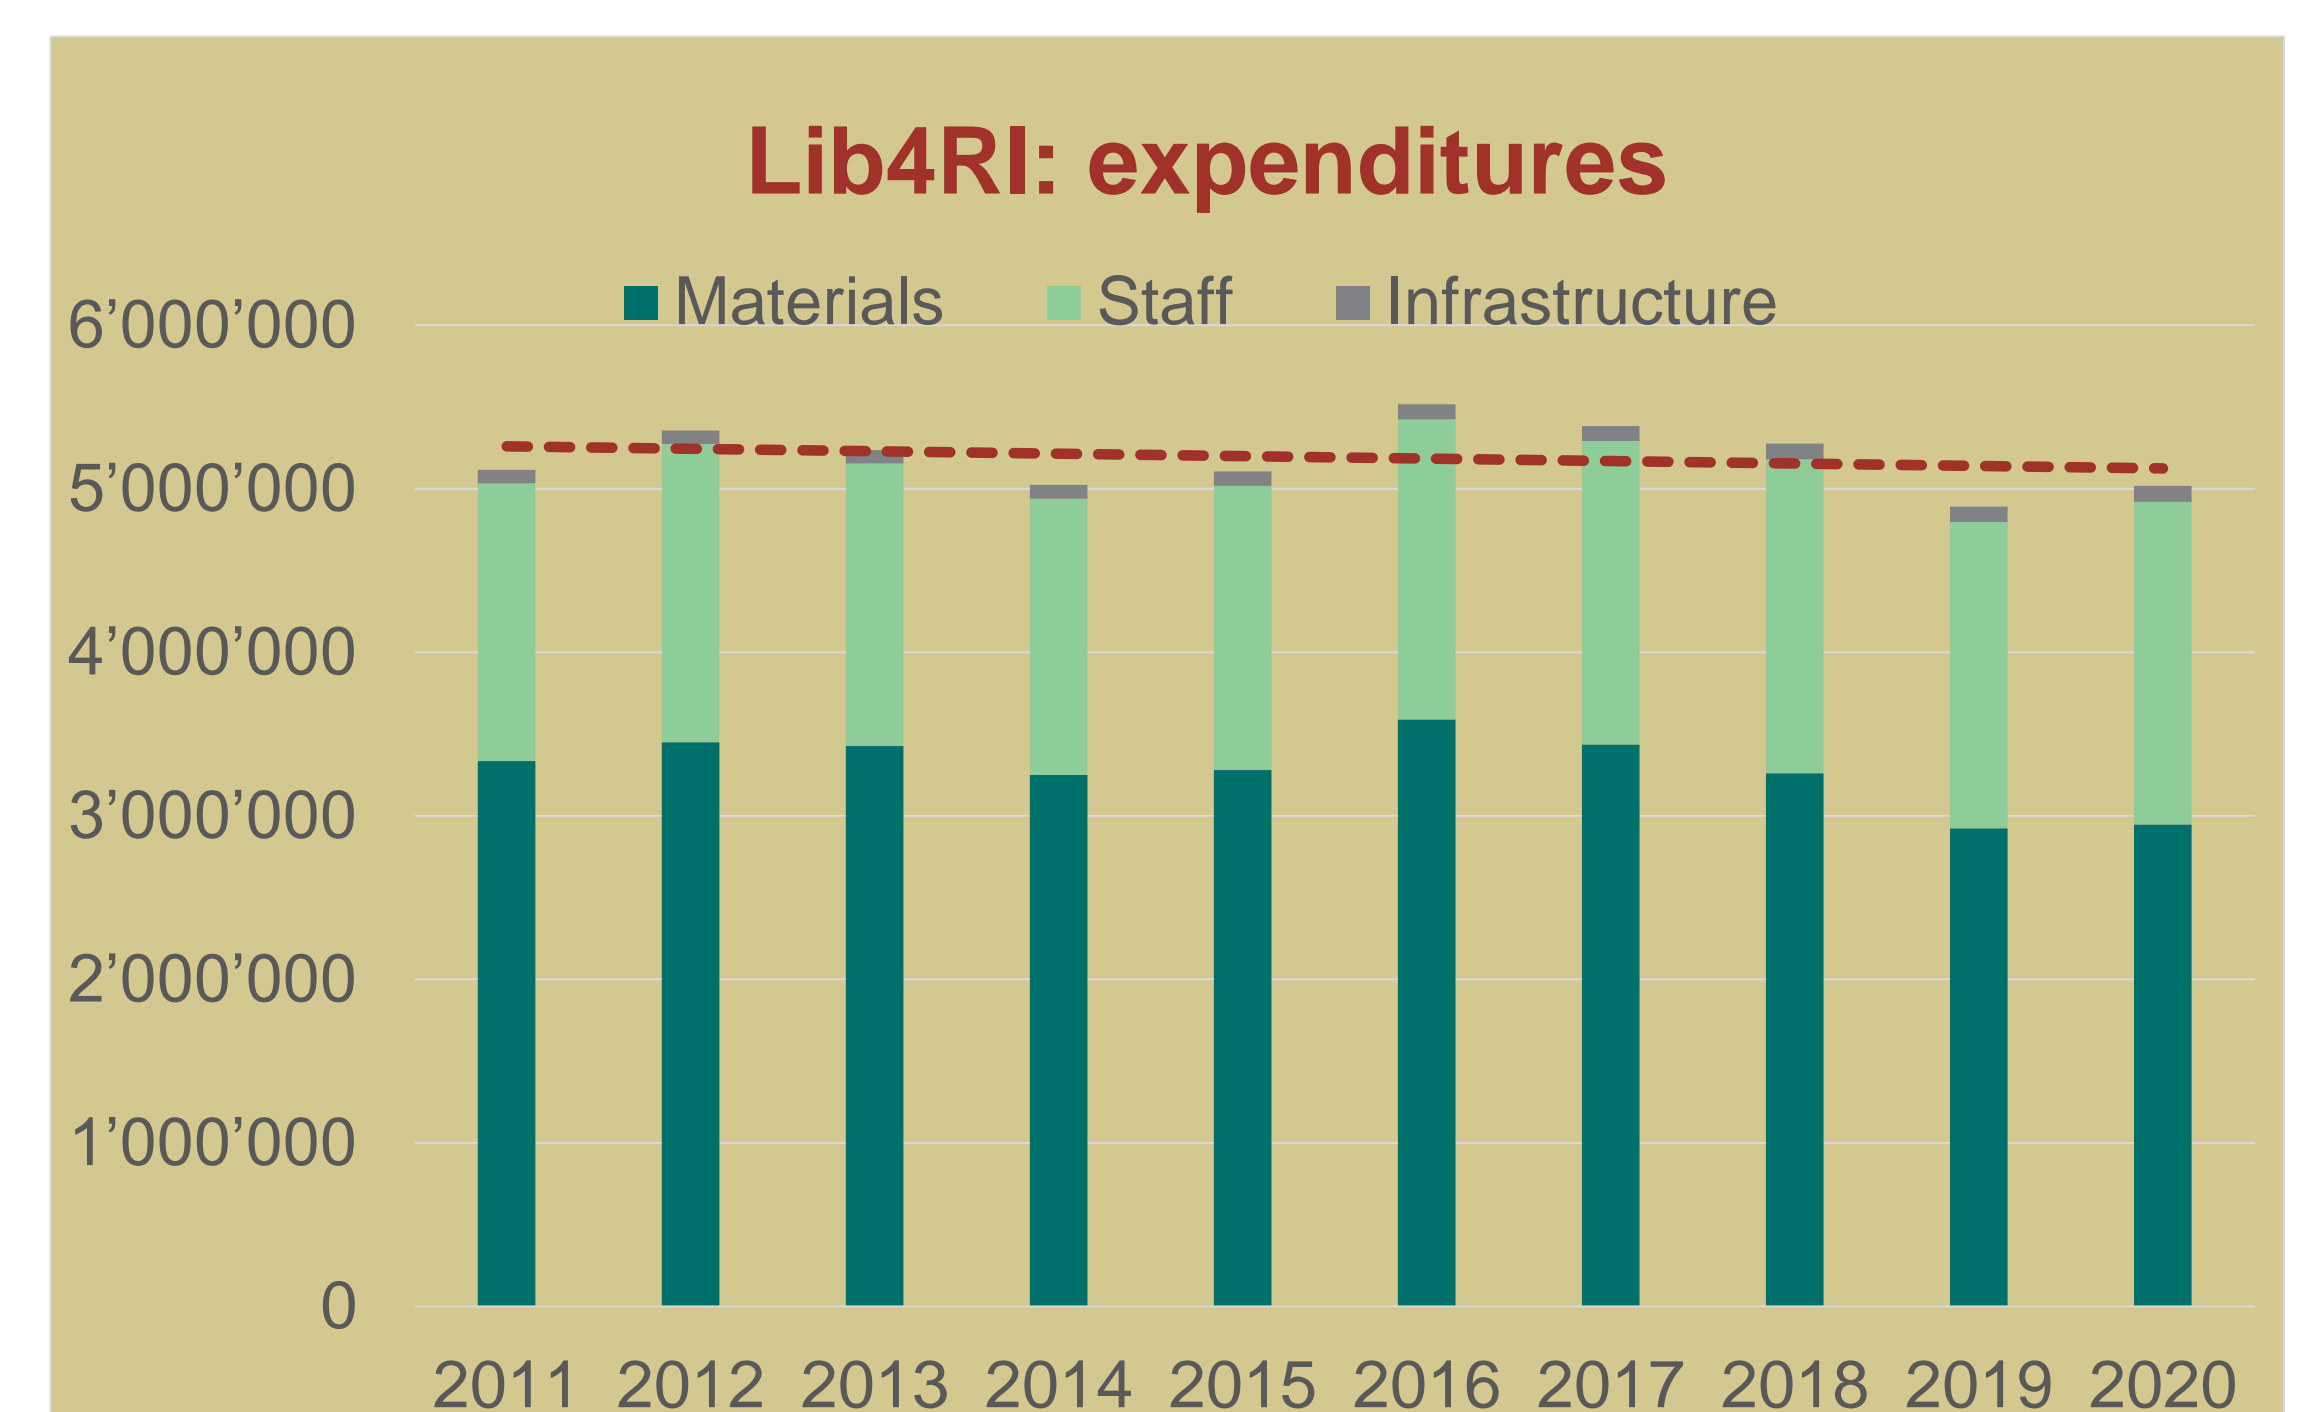

We look back on ten years of continued commitment to «excellent services for excellent research», many new resources for our researchers, exciting new services, such as our institutional repository DORA, new Open Access options, or our extensive training programs.

...in figures

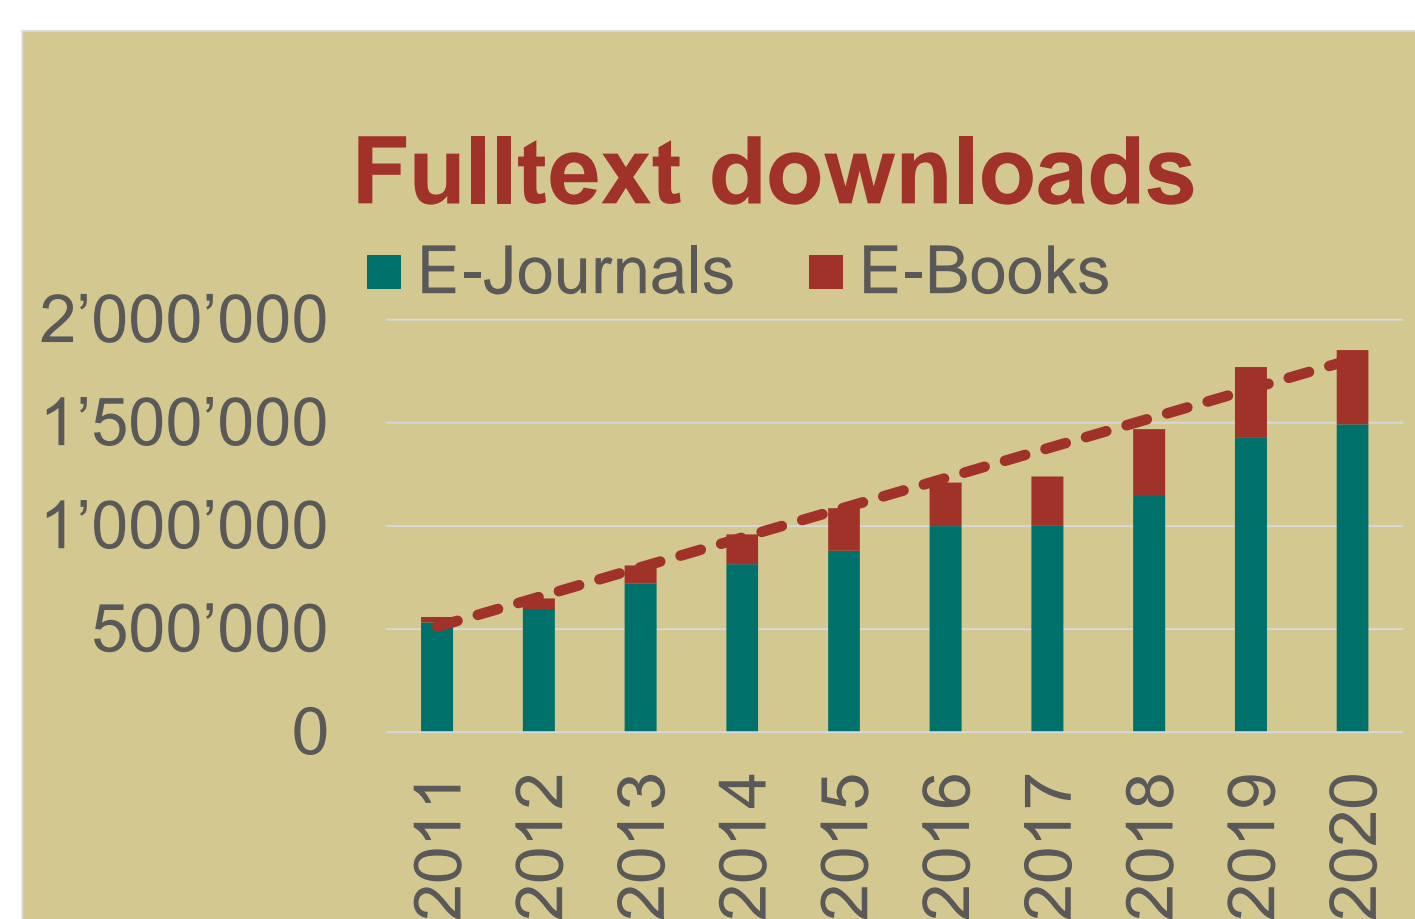

Holdings: increasing availability of electronic resources

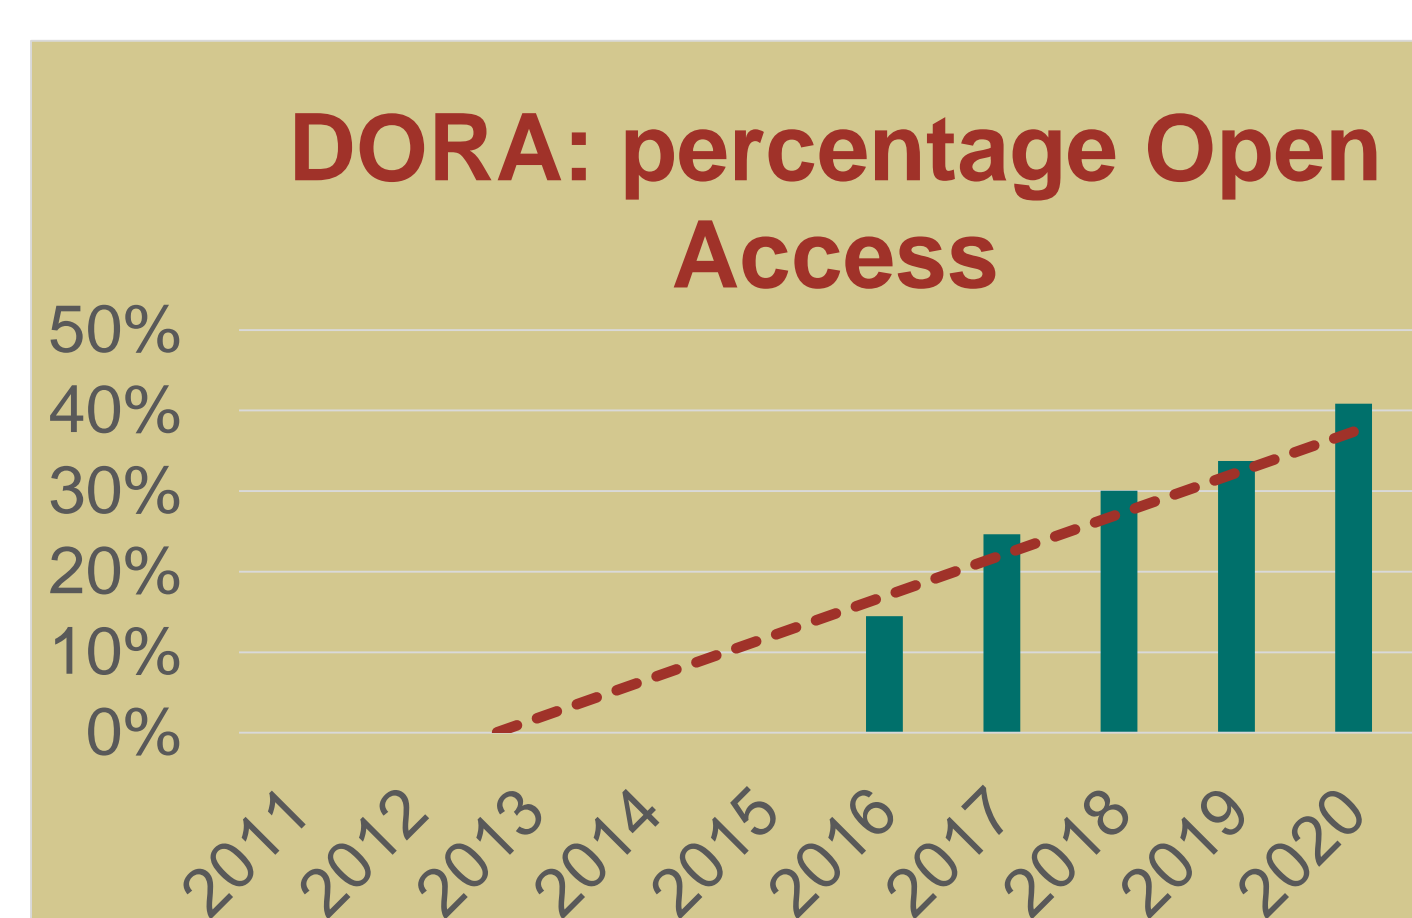

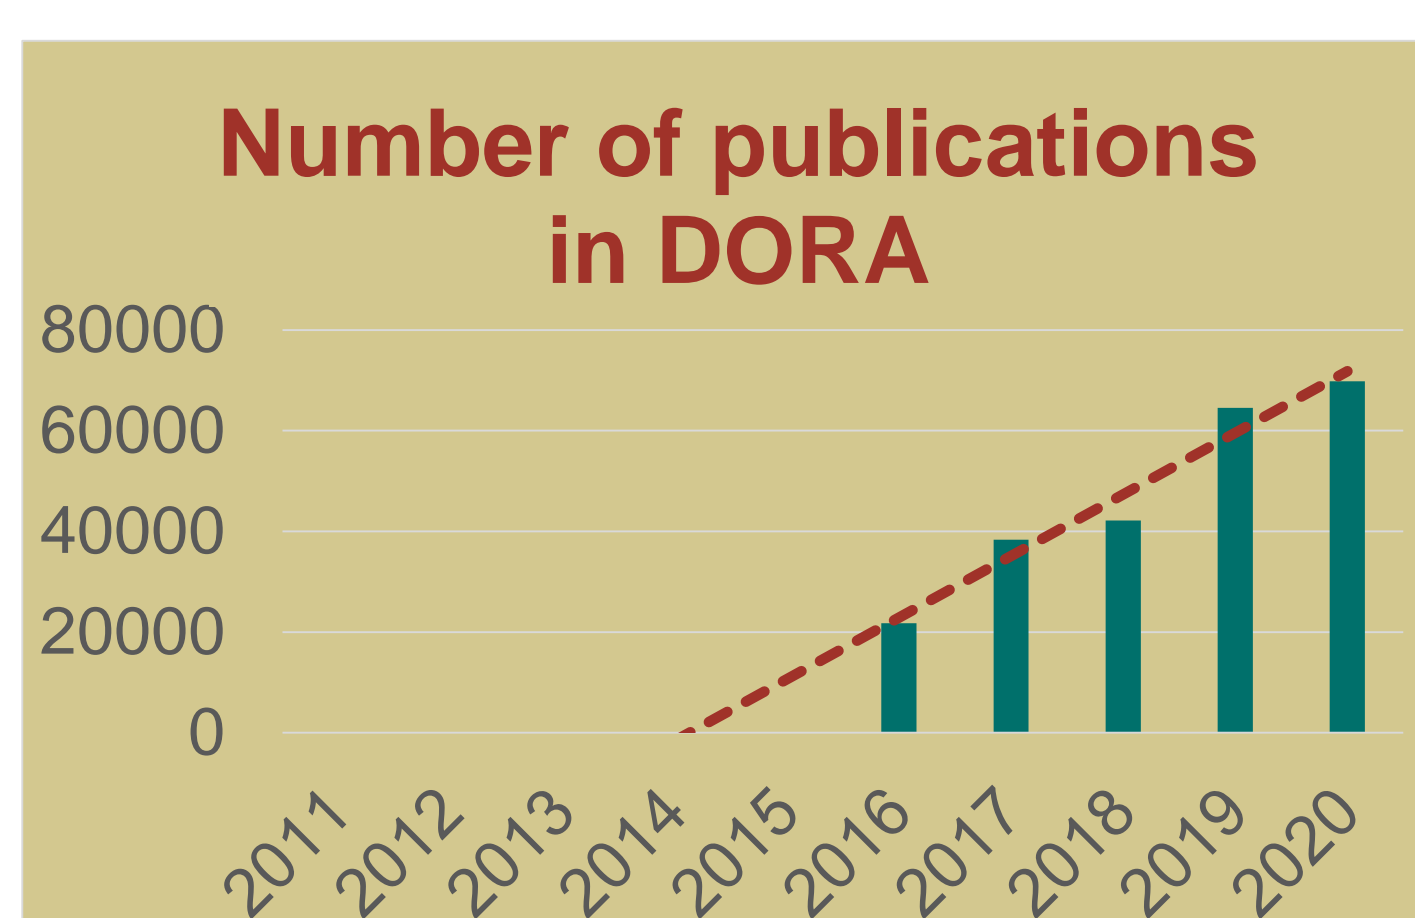

Expenditures: despite development and expansion of services, expenditures were constant over the 10 years

Transformation from print to online: enormous increase in the use of electronic resources; book borrowing declines strongly

New Publication Services: establishment of DORA, migration of legacy data and recording of all new publications from the Research Institutes, increasing visibility of publications from our institutes

...in 10 short films

On the occasion of our anniversary, the library team produced the film «10 Years Lib4RI – A Retrospective» comprised of 10 short films, to give a humorous insight into our developments and achievements over the past ten years. Inspired by film classics/genres, we added our personal touch in a parodic way. Scan the code and check it out!

Trainings: an increasing offer and participants
